The threatened changes in the tariff have scared me, because I have an enormous stock of clothing that I cannot possibly risk carrying over to next year. For this reason I am determined to close it out now

AT

Prices that will compel sales. The size of the profit will not be allowed to stand in the way of a sale, for the goods must go. It will pay you to come a day's drive to investigate this. I am not quite so reckless about other lines as I am about clothing. And yet I can show you bargains in Boots, Shoes, Heavy Woolens, and all kinds of Dry Goods, that I don't think can be equalled anywhere else in the county. Don't say "O, that is all talk," but come and see.

The REGISTER has had an extra printer employed this week trying to catch up with the rush of job work.
Mrs. A. O. Allen and children returned last week from a visit to Illinois which they thoroughly enjoyed.

Notice is given in another column that Misses Reimert and McNeil expect to give an art display during holiday week in their studio in the Marble block. The REGISTER desires, "of its own free will and accord," to say that not only everybody in Iola, but everybody who comes to Iola during that time, ought to see this exhibit without fail, for it will be the nearest prettiest and most interesting thing shown here for a long time. The display, of course, will consist of work done by the young ladies in the way of photographs, portraits and paintings; and those who have not already examined this work will be surprised to see how well it is done. We have been around a good deal, and we do not know of a photograph gallery in the State, in a town of this size, which does such excellent and artistic work. It will be a real treat to be permitted to visit the large and handsome rooms and to see the display of fine art work which will be shown there, and those who delight in "pretty things" should not fail to avail themselves of the opportunity.
Only a few of those $5 cloaks left at Northrup's.
The arrangements for the Holiday Festivities are progressing finely, and the promise for a solid week of enjoyment was never better. The details of the various programs cannot yet be announced, but in a general way it may be said that on Monday (Christmas) evening there will be a cantata by little girls, on Tuesday evening a pantomime under the direction of Mrs. Shaffer, on Wednesday evening a minstrel show by the dramatic club, on Thursday evening a musical and literary program, on Friday evening a grand ball, and on Saturday evening a military drill by young ladies. Refreshments will be served each evening and the programs will be short enough so that social intercourse may make up a large part of the week's attractions. Further details next week.
When a surprise party is really a surprise it is the best kind of a party there is. There is no possible doubt that Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Colborn were completely surprised when about 30 of their friends gathered at their home Wednesday night and took possession of the house. And that is the reason that the party was one of the happiest that ever was. There was no particular occasion for it, no birthday or other anniversary; it was merely an expression of regard and goodwill on the part of the friends, and it was a most successful one in that most difficult of all metrical forms, the sonnet. Her personality is not less charming than her writing, and her list of warm friends is only limited by the range of her acquaintance.
You can get Ladies' and Children's Muffs at Northrup's.
The newly erected Evangelical church edifice at Center Ridge, Kans., will be dedicated on Sunday Dec. 17, 1893. Rev. S. P. Spreng of Cleveland, Ohio, the editor of the famous English organ of the church will officiate. Services will begin on Saturday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p. m. On Sunday at 10 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Also a German service at 2 p. m. by Rev. J. J. Kilpatrick. The young people of Center Ridge assisted by the young people of Golden Valley will furnish the music. All heartily invited. The same person, Rev. S. P. Spreng will also preach at Golden Valley, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p. m. Fraternally Yours, Rev. J. S. Miller.
Mr. Pryor struck a flow of gas in his new well Saturday night about 10 o'clock and awoke the echoes with the joyful toot of his engine. Since then, however, the well has been caving badly and he fears he will have to abandon it. He has spent $5000 or more on these last two wells, and it would be hard luck indeed if both of them should prove worthless. He says that in the last well he passed through about 75 feet of rock that in any other country on earth would have yielded any quantity of oil.
Mrs. J. P. (Swearingen) Duncan received notice this week that her widowed pension ($12 a month) had been allowed, and that something over $600 of back pay was due her, being the amount accumulated from the date of her application to the date of her marriage with Mr. Duncan. Her marriage, of course, forfeited her claim to the pension, but it reverts to her daughter, Miss Josie, who will now be able to draw it, together with her own $2 a month, until she is 16 years of age.
Buy a hat at the slaughter rate at Northrup's.
When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Luray, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise for the remedy. For sale by Evans Bros.
Yates Center News: Rev. Baugh, of the Christian church of Iola, preached the Thanksgiving sermon at this place. Rev. G. P. Young not feeling physically able to fill the appointment made for him. Mr. Baugh preached a very able sermon to a small but appreciative audience. The meeting had been but slightly advertised or a much larger audience would have greeted the scholarly gentleman.
M. M. Hart and son Robert returned last Friday from Florida where they went a month ago with a car load of horses. They found a good market for their stock and expect to take another car load down in two or three weeks. They brought back some fine samples of Florida fruit, for a share of which the REGISTER returns thanks. Cliff McCauley, who went with them, remained there in the employ of a livery man.
A good audience greeted Mrs. DeVoe at the Opera House last Thursday evening and listened to an excellent speech on Equal Suffrage. At the close of the address a Suffrage Campaign club was organized with Mrs. A. J. Fulton president, Mrs. D. Ewart treasurer, and Miss Mattie Thayer secretary.
The largest, finest and cheapest line of Dress Goods in Allen county at Northrup's.

A discount of 10 per cent on every overcoat in the store at Anderson & DeClute.
Allen's Backet, R. B. Stevenson and J. H. Campbell have new ads. this week.
I have a farm for sale or trade or will rent for cash. R. M. Cunningham, Humboldt.
The report around town last week that Hasler, the tailor, had sold out is false. He has too much trade to sell out.
W. M. Merchant was down from Deer Creek Monday, and called at this office to order a lot of winter reading.
An Estey Organ or Piano makes a nice Christmas present, write R. M. Cunningham, Humboldt, Kas. for holiday prices.
A silver souvenir medal of the G. A. R. Encampment at Detroit in 1891, has been found and left at this office for the owner.
Reimert & McNeil will give an Art Display at the Iola Art Studio during the Holiday week. Everybody cordially invited.
Mrs. Lena (Givler) Reed, of Wellington, who is here visiting her father and mother, gave birth on Dec. 8 to a fine girl baby.
It has been a good while since Iola had a good show. Don't fail to be "On Hand" at the Opera House next Monday night.
The REGISTER will furnish handsome Christmas cards to teachers for 25 cents each, postpaid. Cash should accompany order.
Miss Ella Taylor started last Friday evening for St. Louis, where she will spend the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. T. T. Shreve.
Hasler is making suits now for 20 dollars of the best goods in the market; fit and workmanship guaranteed to be the best.
Miss Tointy Roll returned to her home in Chicago Tuesday, after having spent a few weeks with the family of R. R. Claiborne.
The first requisite of good bread is good flour. Get the O. K. flour at Brigham & Munger's and you will have O. K. bread.
It's all the same, a slight cold, congested lungs or severe cough. One Minute Cough Cure banishes them. Cowan & Ausherman.
Jas. Farr, one of the most progressive and successful farmers of Marmaton township, was among the REGISTER callers Wednesday.
Arrange your business and pleasure so you can attend the Holiday Festivities every night during Christmas week at the opera house.
Oklahoma papers report the marriage last week of Thomas, son of Moses Neal, formerly of Humboldt, to Miss Mattie Cheek, of El Reno.
Miss Maude Parmenter, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Adah Wright for a week past, returned to her home in Ottawa last Saturday.
We find this morning we have got 200 overcoats in stock. A discount of 10 per cent will be made on any and all of them at Anderson & DeClute's.
WANTED: Horses, cows, wagon, harness, buggy, etc., in exchange for 80 acres unimproved land. Address: W. L. Brewer, Pittsburg, Kan. (2-5)
Early Risers. Early Risers. Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, dyspepsia and nervousness. Cowan & Ausherman.
Remember that the proceeds from the Holiday entertainments are to go to the Library and the Park Association—two of the worthiest of enterprises.
N. J. Shively and his father, of Marmaton, were among the REGISTER visitors Monday. The REGISTER goes to three different members of that family.
The Y. P. S. C. E. social at D. Ewart's Tuesday night was a grand success. Nearly 75 young people were there and all enjoyed themselves to the very fullest extent of their capacity.
Not one minute elapses between the taking of One Minute Cough Cure and relief. Why shouldn't people take One Minute Cough Cure? They should. They do. Cowan & Ausherman.
I think an elegant pair of spectacles would be as nice a Christmas present to one who needs them as you could find. Dr. Scott, at Campbell's drug store has them.
Said one school boy to the other, "John don't forget to come to school the last day 'cause teacher's going to give us some of the best candy." She got it at Klammann's.
DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cleanses, purifies and heals. It was made for that purpose. Use it for burns, cuts, bruises, chapped hands, sores of all descriptions and if you have piles use it for them.
Oklahoma City Journal: Col. W. C. Jones, the prominent Democratic politician of Kansas and principal candidate for U. S. marshalship of that State, is in the city.
"You can stand on your all day without getting your feet cold if you have a pair of our electric insoles in your shoes. And they only cost you a quarter. Anderson & DeClute."
In accordance with its usual custom the REGISTER will illustrate next week a handsome four-page illustrated Holiday supplement. The supplement alone will be worth almost the price of a year's subscription.
The robbery at Hasler's, the tailor, last week was no fake this time. He got his goods all back and is now making suits for $20.00. Come in and see his goods and you will be surprised.
Mrs. Atchinson and daughter, Dora, who have been visiting the family of J. E. Myler for some time have gone to Chanute where they will visit for awhile before returning to their home in Illinois.
If you have any relatives or friends who once lived in Allen county but are now located elsewhere, suppose you make them a Christmas present of a year's subscription to the REGISTER. It would remind them of you every week in the year.
J. W. Hamm was up from Humboldt Monday with a load of wheat which he took to the mill to get ground. His brother, J. C., was at Humboldt between trains one day last week on his way from Pennsylvania to his home in Wyoming.
One of our business men placed an order with the REGISTER the other day for 10,000 note heads, and another on the day following ordered 2000 letter heads and 3000 envelopes. It is patronage of that generous sort which makes a printer's life worth living.
Bronson Pilot: A good crowd attended the entertainment at the M. E. church Tuesday night and were highly entertained by Mrs. Welch. This was her second appearance in this town, and the remark was made that her recitals are growing better and better all the time.
